nutritioncalc.net It is the most accurate nutrition calculation application. nutritioncalculator.net is designed to calculate nutrition values, calorie contents and allergen information for any type of food. You can also use the application to keep a food diary. With this application you can calculate the nutrition content of any food. Nutrient, vitamin, mineral, calorie, you name it, you can get the amount of it in any food. This application has a very simple interface. It is different from many other nutrition calculators. It does not put emphasis on graphics and colorful effects. The user interface is quite simple and easy to use. You just need to enter your daily food intake and the calories and fat percentage of the food in the box at the top of the main window, or click on the drop down menu and select the calorie and fat percentage. The nutrition information of any food is calculated in the box on the right as you enter the daily calorie and fat intake. You can input your information for any food, but you can only add the information once for each food. You can also add the nutritional information for your entire day to find how well you are maintaining your diet. Besides, you can keep a food diary with the application. The diary feature is a useful way to measure your daily food intake. You can keep track of the amount of foods you eat, the calories and the fat percentage. The application has more than 1300 food entries. It's better to be comprehensive and represent many food entries rather than giving users a hard time by having to make choices. The number of food entries varies and depends on food groups. It is very convenient to use, as it gives access to the application from the default program list (right click and choose open). The application also gives you an option to launch it automatically by adding an entry to the Startup List. To sum up, nutritioncalc.net is a very accurate nutrition calculator application. It is designed to be used by anyone. Even if you are on a diet or looking to make sure you are getting enough vitamins and nutrients in your diet, it will help you do so. Help utility The
