convoluted by tom bissell:
convoluted is a captivating new game from the award-winning writer-artist tom bissell. first, you consider a list of a dozen words, such as lake, cat,
mountain, cream, book,

don, etc. then, your brains start racing as they come up with different definitions for the same word. if you fail to think of one, you're told "this one goes to the wall". some strategies are necessary to get certain critical words, but others aren't required to get others. that makes this game more strategy than any others i know. each word on the list corresponds with a letter. (matt) 5ec8ef588b
