The licensing center was kept simple and easy to use, we didn't feel lost in the long list of features and configuration options to get it work. The package delivered and licensing completed in a couple of days. Steven Bierbach Great picture-in-picture help screen with detailed explanations, so that you're never lost on the remote site. Thank you very much, I feel happy to have acquired your program. Antonio Gutierrez doesnt work with the upgrade Keith O'Sullivan Works fine with my 800x480 display. I was able to upgrade and start using it today. Thanks. Art Ellinghouse I downloaded the video station.. i have a Canon 4x zoom camera, and a tripod, and the video is very blurry and the picture comes out all fuzzy in the zoom lens. I would like to use my camera to upload the video wirelessly to the ip camera in my hd tv, and use the ip camera to upload the video to the ip cam on a vhs, but i can't get the video station to work. Can anyone help me out, thanks for any help Nate I bought this product thinking it would be great for the price..As I am a windows person this video station is not well written or explained. I would also like to ask when I bought this product how to I get the serial number in the camera link software. I have tried in vain for an answer from the author. Gary Subsequently I tried to use it on Windows 7 64-bit. Support staff informed me that it might not work with 64-bit. I didn't find out for some reason. However, the end product was essentially the same. It won't work. I'm in the Philippines, I have an IP cam, synology station v9, and external HD, bought the license pack, downloaded it, and installed it. For some reason, I still can't get it to work, it says.. "waiting for license" and freezes on the
